

Flemish physiotherapists & occupational therapists with a busy caseload want to improve skills lack support to deepen & further their knowledge

Hands On / Hands Off Autonomous Practice

SPECIAL INTEREST IN MultiConceptual Problem Solving Framework for Brain Damaged Clients integrating the philosophy of Margaret Johnstone

KEEP TRACK OF EVOLUTION

Improve therapeutic skills

Exchange information or ideas to update & widen treatment potentials

Bridge the gap with the academic world

Promote continuous professional development constant REPETITION

ACTIVE LEARNER

HOW (1 + 1) > 2

W. Habils - AM. Verstraeten - Werkgroep Johnstone

take time for particular subjects: outcome measurement, the pusher, shoulder-arm rehabilitation networking support each other

WERKGROEP JOHNSTONE
special interest group for PT & OT 1992 implement best practice

Hands On work with use of tools (airsplints, rocking devices)

ECLECTIC
Networking with researchers, universities & professional bodies

Participation in several conferences

Active contacts with Johnstone Teaching Center Bürgerspital Solothurn Switzerland

Encouraging & supporting publications

Organising courses in local hospitals & educational programmes

Public Relation Officer Johnstone Approach
Ms. A.M. Verstraeten amverstraeten@advalvas.be keep themselves informed of latest theoretical developments reflect & self appraise their own work (e.g. videotaping patients; therapy sessions for later discussion)

become proactive, stimulate creativity, share their enthusiasm within working environment learn to critically read research literature